We updated the way we post certain transactions to your account

Knowing the order in which we apply deposits and withdrawals can help you better manage your account and help you avoid possible fees and overdrafts.

What's staying the same:

We will continue to add deposits to your account first before subtracting withdrawals. Any fees are assessed last.

What's changing:

During our nightly processing, we now subtract the following withdrawals from your account based on the date and time of when the transaction was authorized or shows as pending, instead of subtracting from highest to lowest dollar order:

- Automatic payments from your account, also can be referred to as ACH payments
- Checks drawn on your account, and
- Recurring debit card transactions (e.g. movie subscriptions or gym memberships)

This is how we already subtract everyday debit card transactions (e.g. groceries, gasoline or dining out), online banking transactions and ATM withdrawals.

For more information, please see the Posting Order section in the Deposit Account Agreement at chase.com/business-deposit-disclosures. For information about overdrafts and our overdraft services, please visit chase.com/overdraft.

If you have questions, please call us at the number on your statement. We accept operator relay calls.

Our courtesy practice related to refunds

We may have provided you with a discretionary fee refund at your request or on our own in the past. Please keep in mind that while we did this as a courtesy, we are not required to process similar requests in the future.

Good news — we've made two changes to help simplify how overdraft fees work.

We'll no longer charge:

1. Returned Item Fees when items are declined or returned unpaid because you don't have a sufficient balance in your account.
2. Insufficient Funds Fees when your account balance is overdrawn by $50 or less at the end of the business day. If you overdraw your account by more than that, we'll charge a $34 Insufficient Funds Fee per item, beginning with the first item that overdraws your account balance by more than $50 (maximum of 6 fees per business day, up to $204).

We pay overdrafts at our discretion so we don't guarantee that we will always pay any type of transaction. As a reminder, overdraft services are only available for qualifying checking accounts. For additional information, please visit chase.com/overdraft.
